DRAMATICS ENJOYED BY LARGE AUDIENCE

On the evening of February 20 the Dramatic Club presented its second series of plays which were most enthusiastically received. Owing to the bad condition of the roads not as many were present as were expected but nearly a hundred and fifty came to see the future Barrymores (and Mrs. Fiskes) perform. Those who attempted to emulate the latter met with some difficulty in assuming a feminine gait and voice, but a sympathetic audience found pleasure in the comedy if not in the acting. Lawson put on a fine impersonation of the gentler sex in his act. Fortunately only one of the plays required any women.

The first play of the evening met with the greatest satisfaction and approval. The role of Toff, a dilapidated gentleman, was most professionally portrayed by "Jim" Bridges who seems to be a real find for the Dramats. "Larry" Kenney in the role of Albert left little to be desired, and the acting of the entire cast was flawless. The thread of the story is woven about the theft of a ruby from the forehead of an Indian god. Having disposed of the pursuing priests, the sailors wish to sell the jewel, but the "gentleman," Toff, who is master mind for the gang disagrees. Suddenly the priests are seen and are lured into the inn and killed. Then thinking themselves finally free, they start to spend the money they expect to receive for the stone. At this climax the god itself enters, recovers the stone, and call the thieves to their death.

The second of these plays was entitled "The End of the Rope" and the setting was in the attic of a deserted house with the cheerful monitor of "Suicide House." A lone candle was the only light and added generally to the gruesomeness of the scene.

A young man enters and prepares to hang himself. The wiser ones guess the cause to be a member of the weaker sex, because of the reverent way in which he kisses a little handkerchief. His demise is interrupted by the entrance of an older man, "Jerry" May, who assumes an attitude that is generally obnoxious to one preparing to depart from this world by his own hand. There is, however, a great deal of reasoning behind his remarks, and the younger man finally decides that he will not join the deceased. He is restrained from leaving while the elder man

WHITE ELECTED BASEBALL CAPTAIN

At a recent meeting of the baseball letter men Wesley White of Portland, Maine was elected captain. White is a four letter athlete and is captain of track also. Between laps on the track he is in the gym playing guard on the basketball team, and last fall he played fullback on the football team. Before entering Dummer he had the reputation of being one of the best schoolboy pitchers in the state of Maine. With White on the mound and Hinds, last year's captain, behind the bat, we should have no battery worries this year.

McKinley, who won the prize last year for being the most valuable man on the nine, will play center field. Sleeper, another letter man, will be on second, Hart is a veteran at short, and Kenney played third last year. Sawyer is also a veteran for the outfield. With this combination of letter men and a number of promising candidates, the prospects for a victorious nine are most promising. The batterymen will work out in the gym for a bit before vacation and regular practise will begin immediately on our return.

JUNIORS WIN AGAIN

On the 9th of March the Juniors again defeated a light-weight team augmented by two new players by a 17 to 6 count. Littlefield starred for Newburyport with two field goals, and Spaulding sank the other one for their six points. Best and Wagner each tallied five points for the Juniors. Steinhater got two from scrimmage and MacKenzie got one and a foul. The first period ended in a 2 to 2 tie. At the end of the half Dummer had forged into a 4 to 2 lead.

DUMMER WINS ON TRACK FROM HAVERHILL AND BROWNE AND NICHOLS

DUMMER TRACK TEAM SMOTHERS HAVERHILL HIGH

On March 3 the Dummer track team defeated Haverhill High in a one sided meet at South Byfield, 40 to 19. Despite the inequality of the two teams there were several interesting features. Towne, the husky Haverhill football star, tossed the shot to a new gym record of 41 feet 10 inches. He easily won the event with a heave of 40 feet 4 3-4 inches, and although that was in itself a record he was allowed three more chances to shatter it. Hinds held the old record of 38 feet 10. Moody, the Haverhill high jumper, after an exciting duel with Al Horr won out at a height of 5 feet 4 3-4 inches. Al Horr dropped out at 5 feet 3 3-4 inches which bettered his old record. The bar at Moody's jump was at 5:8 but allowing for the sag the actual jump was considerably less. Moody was given a try at the gym record of 5:6 held by Judd '23 but failed.

In the 600 Charley White set a hot race from the start and was never headed leading the field by a third of a lap. Tuxbury took second a shade ahead of Morrison. The qualifiers in the 20 were McKinney, McKinley, Milden and Holmes. McKinley won the finals with McKinney second and Holmes third. Captain White again asserted himself to win the 1000 in a masterly style. Martinez sprinted into second while Gilbert held down third. The 300 was a weird race with McKinley leading McKinney who was way ahead of the field. At the first corner a Haverhill man fell down and brought down four with him, and hardly was that mess straightened out when another fell and tied up the score. McKinney gave one of the greatest exhibitions of gameness when he placed second having lost his shoe at the start. And running barefoot on that track is no joke either. In the relay Dummer more than lapped Haverhill.

The summary:

20 yard dash. 1st McKinley (D); 2nd, McKinney (D); 3rd, Holmes (H). Time: 2 3-5 seconds.
300 yard dash. 1st, McKinley (D); 2nd, McKinney (D); 3rd, Lancy (H). Time: 40 1-2 seconds.
600 yard dash. 1st, White (D); 2nd, Tuxbury (H); 3rd, Morrison (D). Time: 1 minute, 27 seconds.
1000 yard run. 1st, White (D); 2nd, Martinez (D); 3rd, Gilbert (H). Time: 2 minutes, 45 3-4 seconds.

DUMMER DEFEATS BROWNE AND NICHOLS

February 26 in a close and interesting meet at South Byfield the Dummer team defeated the much heralded Browne and Nichols team. Dummer took every first place except the shot-put in which they had a second, but Browne and Nichols had every other second. McKinley, Kenney, McKinney and Watkins qualified for the final of the 20 which was won by McKinley, Watkins and Kenney in order. White ran his usual heady race in the 600 yard dash and came close to leading the field by half a lap. Emmons was second a shade ahead of Rogers. The time for this was especially good, 1:24 2-5. The 300 was a particularly tight affair all around. McKinley took first only by real he-man running with Watkins and Hinds pressing him all the way. The high-jump which came next was a big surprise to the Dummer supporters. Al Horr took first with a leap of 5 feet 3 1-2 inches. Calderwood and Lawson tied for second at 5 feet 2 1-2 inches.

The thousand was won by the iron man, Charley White, who had a safe lead on Hodges. Martinez sprinted into third place. The shot-put was with a qualifying round, and the four who stood the test were Hinds, Barnes, Chandler and Graves. Barnes won first with a toss of 37 feet 1 1-2 inches. Hinds beat out Chandler for second place by a foot. The relay was an easy victory for Dummer. McKinley took the first corner and from then on we were never headed. White opened up Mac's lead and when McKinney and Hinds got through with it, it was a good half lap. The final score stood 38 to 21 in Dummer's favor.

The summary:

20 yard dash. 1st, McKinley (D); 2nd, Watkins (B. & N.); 3rd, Kenney (D). Time: 2 3-5 seconds.
300 yard dash. 1st, McKinley (D); 2nd, Watkins (B & N); 3rd, Hinds (D). Time 38 3-5 seconds.
600 yard dash. 1st, White (D); 2nd, Emmons (B & N); 3rd, Rogers (B & N). Time: 1:24:3-5 seconds.
1000 yard dash. 1st, White (D); 2nd, Hodges (B & N); 3rd, Martinez (D). Time: 2:44:2-5 minutes.
High jump. 1st, Horr (D); 2nd, tied between Calderwood (D) and Lawson (B & N). Height 5 feet, 5 inches.

AN ATHLETIC AGE LIMIT

With the advancement of preparatory school athletics and the discussions in regard to the relative importance of sports and studies comes the question of an age limit. It is undoubtedly the coming topic for discussions and, it would be well if Dummer came to some definite conclusion soon. In its principles Dummer is modelled after the schools of the private school league of Boston. One of the most important rules that govern these schools is that no one can take part in athletics after his twentieth birthday. Athletically, Dummer is at a disadvantage because of the trouble incurred in getting here. For this reason we should do all we can to encourage them to carry on athletic relations with us, because they are the class of schools that we are. The only point against a move of this nature is that when we did play schools out of this class we might be handicapped. However, it would be a fine thing for Dummer if they could join this circuit. Anything we can do to put ourselves on an equal footing with them would be appreciated by them and would advance our standing with them. By adopting this rule regarding the age of athletes we would show a desire to conform to their regulations and join them. Dummer is not an old men's home and we could not suffer greatly by adopting this statute. Certainly no more than the others. We must convince them that they will be met on an equal footing and by men of their own age. We may even hope to join this admirable league.

News of Interest

A few statistics are in order concerning the track team which Dummer has every reason to be proud of. This team is carrying on the work of last year's team in a fine manner, and so far they have won three meets in as many starts. Six men have already earned their letters by clearing the five point mark, and several others are on the verge of winning theirs. Captain White is setting the team a fine example as a leader and has not been headed in a race this year, and the husky takes on the 1000, 600 and the relay which is enough to tax the strongest constitution. McGinley is second among the point winners, and after getting away to a poor start in the first meet he has been a double winner in the others. The totals are: White 33 3-4, McGinley 23 3-4, Hinds 18 3-4, McKinney 11 3-4, Horr 11, Martinez 5 Calderwood 2 1-2, Morrison 2, and Kenney 1.

On the evening of the 27th "The Wizard of Oz" was given at the gym on the silver sheet. This event is getting to look more and more like a regular feature, and if the pictures prove a little more agreeable it should prove to be a popular way of passing Saturday evenings.

The pictures of the squads and teams of the winter sport teams, track, basketball, and hockey, were taken this week.

The adventuresome Junior class journeyed to Boston in a body to see "The Big Parade" at the Tremont Theatre on the 6th of March.

The term exams commence on Tuesday, March 16th, and we are free for a ten day vacation on Friday morning. We are due back, however, on Monday night, March 29th.

BASKETBALL AT DUMMER ACADEMY

BOSTON NORMAL ART 47
DUMMER ACADEMY 31

February 24 in a rugged and slow basketball game the Boston Normal Art team walked away with a game which the Dummer team had a chance after chance to snatch away from them. The home team suffered from lack of competitive practise, no games having been played for close to two weeks. The absence of their usual pep and attempts at individual efforts detracted from their ability as a team. Wolfrum of the Normal team scored first in the first minute of play and almost immediately Redfield, shooting for a foul, caught the rebound and caged it. Following this came a period of long wild shots by both teams, White finally caging one to start our scoring column and Hinds rolled one in soon after to tie up the score.

McGonicle then sank one to put Normal into a lead which they never lost. Robinson who proved to be a constant nemesis too dropped his first one on a foul and then sank two in quick succession from the floor. Hart shot a basket and Hinds dropped a foul before the period closed leaving Dummer on the small end of a 15-7 score. During the next period VanEtten scored on a dash down the floor. Hart dropped two fouls, and Pillsbury got one. Robinson and Redfield each had scoring streaks and at the end of the half the score stood 26-12 in favor of Normal Art.

Pillsbury opened the scoring in the second period by rolling one in from under the basket. After the half Dummer came back looking a little better and held the visitors with the exception of Robinson who shot three from the floor and one foul while they amassed ten points. Hart, Fitz, Pillsbury, and Griggs being responsible. The end of the period marked the close of the rally, however, and while Van Etten and Hart contributed five points Normal Art ran up thirteen points, Robinson and Redfield continuing to menace the Dummer basket. The game closed with Normal Art well ahead 47-31.

The summary:

JUNIORS 32—WILDCATS 5

On the afternoon of March 5th while the varsity was playing at Rivers School, the Juniors had little trouble in defeating a light-weight team from Newburyport by a 32 to 5 score. So close was the defense of the Juniors that their opponents were able to score but once from scrimmage, their other points resulting from free throws.

Best started the scoring by getting a basket in the first minute of play. Whyte followed his example immediately, and Best repeated. Wagner shot a goal from scrimmage. Numerous substitutions prevented the Juniors from organized offence, but the defense was at all times good. Best and Whyte scored one apiece during the second period while the Newburyport scoring was limited to two successful foul shots. The score at half time was Juniors 12, Newburyport 2.

In the second half Best brought his total of baskets up to five and MacKenzie made three. Whyte added two more and Wagner, Steinhater and Chandier contributed one each. Foley managed to score Newburyport's only goal. Ayres added a point from the foul line.

pours forth a story of the eternal triangle, and after the young man has left he does the very thing he de-claimed so vehemently.

The last play was a farce "Not Quite Such a Goose." The plot revolves about a seventeen year old boy whose chief interest is baseball. At least until a seventeen year old friend of his sister proves this to be otherwise. It was the first appearance here, but, we hope, not the last of Forrest Morrill as the boy. Warren Lane, James Budgell and Leonard Lawson vied with each other in the art of female impersonation. "Nort" Pickering favored us with a few short moments and a glimpse of Pillsbury's blazer in the role of a male with a superior sex appeal. Comes natural we might say.

Between the acts Mr. Phillips filled up time by the use of his mouth but didn't say a thing. It was amusing, however, and we think he has quite a bit of talent in that art which every politician needs.

RIVERS FREEZES DUMMER
RIVERS 23, DUMMER 5

Dummer lost the final basketball game of the season in the Rivers School "Frigidaire." The slump which has been apparent in the last few games was quite evident in this final contest. Inability to drop the ball through the loop when under the basket and lack of training were two of the most glaring faults.

Hinds was the only member of the team to score from the floor. Time and again the players were under the basket with the ball but they could not put it through the net. The cold air gym had, no doubt, some effect on our playing but it should not have resulted in such a one-sided score. Betts was the outstanding player on the Brookline team.
